"G.O.P." CONVENTION MEETS IN CHICAGO

Lodge Delivers Key Note Speech as Temporary Chairman

JOHNSON MAKES PLEA

Virginia Delegation Re-Elects Slemp as National Committeeman—Crupper Chairman of Delegation.

Chicago, June 8.—The Republican national convention was called to order today. Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts, Republican leader in the Senate, was chosen temporary chairman and delivered his keynote address.

A vast audience attended the opening session. Requests for tickets were out of all proportion to the number of seats. The greatest gatherings of news writers ever assembled was present to report the proceedings.

The delegates' section is thoroughly representative. Business men from the East, negroes from the South, farmers from the Middle West, women from every section are included in the list.

The preconvention fight that began many months ago closed last night with the mass meeting addressed by Senators Hiram W. Johnson and William E. Borah, irreconcilable opponents of the league of nations.

"One man's guess is as good as another's" is the universal answer to the eternal inquiry as to the likely nominee.

Senator Hiram Johnson put forward the argument in favor of his own nomination for President.

He pleaded for what he called "a head up, eyes open" party stand, from attempts to "hide in the shadow of privilege."

Defining two big issues, Senator Johnson declared the first was the high cost of living, to be coped with not wholly by new law, but by unshrinking "administration of the present law."

The second issue, international, he covered flatly with the declaration: "I am opposed to the present covenant of the League of Nations," emphasizing his opposition to the league plan of the Versailles treaty.

"Against it the Republican party must take its stand," he declared. "There can be no hiding or skulking upon an issue of this magnitude. In this campaign men must march under the polyglot banner of European imperialism and internationalism, or under the old Stars and Stripes."

Chicago, June 8.—The Virginia Republican State delegation yesterday unanimously reelected Representative C. Bascom Slemp, of Big Stone Gap, as national committeeman, and selected the other officers of the organization and the convention.

Joseph L. Crupper, of Alexandria, was chosen as chairman of the delegation, and Dr. J. M. Doherty, of Nicholsville, and P. J. Reilly, of Portsmouth, vice chairman D. Lawrence Groner goes on the committee on resolutions, R. A. Fulwei'er, of Staunton, on credentials; H. L. Lawson, of Roanoke, on organization, and John Paul, of Harrisonburg, on rules.

W. Fanagan, of Radford, was chosen to represent Virginia on the committee to notify the presidential candidate of his nomination, and A. P. Strother, for the committee to notify the vice presidential nominee.

Sentiment of the Virginia delegates, as affected by the recent changes in the convention was sounded at yesterday morning's caucus, and the impression seemed to prevail that three Wood delegates were wavering, the indications being that on an early ballot the Virginia delegation would be solidly with Mr. Slemp, whose affiliations are with the regular Republican organization.

Mr. Slemp issued a statement yesterday afternoon declaring that no subject now before the Republican party is of greater interest than the drift toward the party in the South. He said the time had come to eliminate sectionalism and to this end he believed that suggestion of a Southern candidate for the Vice Presidency, was meeting with much favor.

"Virginia's candidate for this office," he said, "Col. Henry W. Anderson, of Richmond, is steadily gaining in strength and popularity not only among Southern Republicans, but among Republicans from all over the country."

UPHOLDS VALIDITY OF PROHIBITION

Sweeping Decision of Supreme Court Ends All Contention

NOW BONE DRY NATION

Decision Set Forth in Eleven Conclusions Covering Seven Separate Proceedings.

Washington, June 8.—In a sweeping decision covering both the Eighteenth Amendment and the Volstead Enforement act the United States Supreme Court yesterday declared both of these legislative enactments constitutional.

That Congress did not transcend the powers of the State in passing the Volstead act and prohibiting the sale of liquor containing more than one-half of 1 per cent. is the decision of the highest tribunal.

The decision of the court was read by Justice Vandevanter and constituted a clean-cut victory for national prohibition. In no particular did the Supreme Court uphold any contention of the wets in the several suits brought either by objecting States or liquor and brewery interests.

1.—The adoption by both houses of Congress each by a two-thirds vote, of a joint resolution proposing an amendment to Constitution sufficiently shows that the proposal was deemed necessary by all who voted for it. An express declaration that they regarded it as necessary is not essential. None of the resolutions whereby prior amendments were proposed contained such a declaration.

2—The two-thirds vote in each house which is required in proposing an amendment, is a vote of two-thirds of the members present, assuming the presence of a quorum, and not a vote of two-thirds of the entire membership, present and absent.

3.—The referendum provisions of State constitutions and statutes cannot be applied consistently with the Constitution of the United States in the ratification or rejection of amendments to it.

4.—The prohibition of the manufacture, sale, transportation, importation and exportation of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes, as embodied in the Eighteenth Amendment, is within the power to amend reserved by Article 4 of the Constitution.

5—That amendment by lawful proposal and ratification has became a part of the Constitution and must be respected and given effect the same as other provisions of that instrument.

6—The first section of the amendment—the one embodying the prohibition—is operative throughout the entire territorial limits of the United States, binds all active bodies, courts, public officers and individuals within those limits and of its own force invalidates every legislative act—whether by Congress, by a State Legislature or by a territorial assembly—which authorizes or sanctions what the section prohibits.

7—The second section of the amendment—the one declaring "the Congress and the several States shall have concurrent power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation"—does not enable Congress or the several States to defeat or thwart prohibition, but only to enforce it by appropriate means.

8—The words "concurrent power" in that section do not mean joint power or require that legislation thereunder by Congress, to be effective, shall be aproved or sanctioned by the several States, or any of them; nor do they mean that the power to enforce is divided between Congress and the several States along the lines which separate or distinguish foreign and interstate commerce from intrastate affairs.

9—The power confided to Congress by that section, while not exclusive, is territorially co-extensive with the pro-

Before the largest crowd of the season the Dreadnaught A. C. won an interesting double bill Sunday, making it sixteen straight victories. The main feature of the days work was the stelar performance of J. Quayle who twirled both games for the Dreadnaughts forcing twenty-three men to retire by the strikeout route and holding his opponents in check through out.

Fisher, Cowan and Deal played well for the losers. The Linworth A. C. of Washington held the Dreadnaught's to one run until the 6th inning when the locals staged a heavy assault, three doubles and four singles resulting in six runs, repeating again in the eight with five singles with two errors adding four more runs and placing the game on ice. The leading hitters were Dreifus (4 hits), Deavers (3 heats), Steele (3 hits) and Quayle (3 hits). The work of McCoy, Hutchinson and C. Crump featured for the Linworths. Final score Dreadnaught A. C. 11, Linworth's 5.

Three standing committees were decided upon and the following chairman selected: Social ,Miss Cora L. Cochran, chairman and Mrs. C. INCOME TAXES

Second Instalment Due and Payable by June 15

The following information for the guidance of taxpayers in the payment of the second installment of their income tax for the year 1919, is given out by Collector of Internal Revenue R. C. L. Moncure.

"Bills for the second installment of the income tax for 1919, due on or before June 15, have been mailed to taxpayers. Unlike those of last year, the bills are non-detachable and are expected to be returned intact, accompanied by check or money order.

"Payment in this manner is particularly desirable. It helps the tax payer by saving him a trip to the office of the collector or branch office, and it helps the government by avoiding congestion at the cashier's window during the last few days preceeding the date of payment. Besides a checkk is a receipt.

"Failure of a taxpayer to receive a bill does not relieve him of his obligation to pay his tax within the time specified. To avoid penalty and interest the tax must be in this office of the collector or branch office on or before June 15.

"Checks or money order should be made payable to Collector of Internal Revenue. Payments may be made at the office of the Collector, Richmond, Va., or at the following branch office, Federal Building Alexandria, Va.

FORESTALLING THE MARKET.

Half a century ago a law was in force in Alexandria which made forestalling the market a misdemeanor. No person was allowed to purchase country produce during market hours for the purpose of reselling the same.

The repeal of the law by the City Council was synchronous with the adoption of the Underwood Constitution. Since that time many people in Alexandria have regretted the obliteration of an ordinance which, they contend, had been enacted in the interests of the purchasing public.

A well known citizen recently called attention to what he said he had witnessed in our market. A countryman had brought in a number of dressed chickens. His price, while high, was not beyond reason, but his stock was soon purchased by a man who intended to resell the fowls, and who immediately advanced the prices beyond the reach of any but the opulent.

Henry R. Martin, a Hagerstown, Md., grocer, was fined $5 on the charge of buying strawberries in the city market for 30 cents a box and reselling them 40 and 50 cents a box. This is in violation of an ordinance prohibiting the purchasing of commodities in the city market for the purpose of reselling them.

PROHIBITION VALID

The decision of the Supreme Court upholding the Eighteenth amendment and the Volstead act leaves the opponents of prohibition not a single drop of legal comfort. Every contention made by the counsel who represented the Government and the Antisaloon League has been sustained; every point made by Mr. Root and other eminent lawyers against the constitutionality of the amendment and the Volstead act has been overruled and decided to be without merit.

The Baltimore Sun says: "The Supreme Court seems to hold, virtually, that any sort of moral, sumptuary or economic laws may be written into the Constitution, hence it would appear that under it, it would be constitutional to amend our Federal compact by the incorporation in it of the Ten Commandments or of a declaraiton making a high tariff a part of our constitutional framework. Apparently, hereafter there will be no barriers to amendments of any character or kind.

"The Supreme Court, however, has not the final word. It is for the people to say whether they will allow this decision to stand. There is nothing to prevent the repeal of the amendment, if the people will it. For the present the point of hostile attack is the Volstead act. That is not a part of the Constitution and may be repealed or amended by Congress. It is for the people to say in this campaign what they wish. Afterward it may be too late."

AN ILL-STARRED ROMANOFF.

Democracy, misunderstood, is a great leveler of the human race. Hence it is no wonder that Damocles saw a sword suspended by a cobwebb ever dangling over his head. Readers of French history generally sympathize with the unfortunate nobles who were compelled to attire themselves, wives and little ones in rags inorder to escape the vengeance of bloodthirsty Jacobins who regarded all as their targets who adorned themselves in clean clothes or blackened their shoes. Marat, leader of the crime against civilization, like modern anarchists, had an aversion to anything savoring of the respectable either in apparel or diet. He could live wherever a terrapin could exist.

Garbed in a tattered ermine cloak, priceless once, but now so weather-beaten and worn as to be utterly worthless, the Grand Duchess Olga, sister of the late Czar of Russia, has been among the thousands of refugees seeking the aid of the American Red Cross at Belgrade, Servia. Hatless, her gloves in twisted rags, her shoes broken out and her purse empty, the grand duchess stepped from a crowded refugee train at the Belgrade station recently. When a steaming plate of soup from the American Red Cross food kitchen was handed her, she ate it ravenously and remarked: "It is a week since I have had so much food at one time."

FAKE WHISKY PRESCRIPTIONS

Three hundred thousand spurious whisky prescriptions have been written in Chicago since prohibition went into effect, according to an estimate made by Captain Hubert Howard, Federal Prohibition Director for Illinois.

Tabulation of 1,000 prescriptions for obtaining liquor, picked at random, showed "general debility," standing second high in the list of reasons for its need, according to Captain Howard. Bronchitis caused issuance of more than one third of the prescriptions, according to the list.

AWAITING THE VERDICT

The Justices of the Supreme Court will, without doubt, render a blanket decision today on the whole prohibition question.

The delay in handing down the decision looks as though the court is by no means unanimous. For two months the Justices have been considering the question.

Inside of 24 hours they will know the worst or the best. It may be that with a man's dinner he can drink light wine or beer. And again bone dryness may be imposed on all America. In this event, the only thing to do is to grin and bear it. Law is law and must be obeyed whether you like it or not.

STRANGE INTOXICANT

Few persons, even confirmed topers, know anything about mescal; but the demand for its prohibiiton will perhaps grow stronger now that the constitutionality of the Eighteenth Amendment has been affirmed. For if the effects are half as dazzling as they are pictured, a mescal jag must far surpass any that alcohol can produce. Made from the top of a cactus plant, its properties have long been known to the Mexican Indians.

Mescal, we are told, lengthens time, makes the near seem far, turns the commonplace into the wonderful and gives musical notes the power of producing colors. If this were all it might be contended that the drug was harmless. But we are left in ignorance of its further operation. Is it paralyzing to speech and action? Does it make its victims physical and moral wrecks? Congress will have to go into this matter, for here there is a seeming need of further repressive legislation.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

hibition of the first section, embraces manufacture and other intrastate transactions as well as importation, exportation and interstate traffic, and is in no wise dependent on or affected by action of inaction on the part of the several States or any of them.

10—That power may be exerted against the disposal for beverage purposes of liquors manufactured before the amendment became effective, just as it may be against subsequent manufacture for those purposes. In either it is a constitutional mandate on prohibition that is being enforced.

11.—While recognizing that there are limits beyond which Congress cannot go in treating beverages as within its power of enforcement, we think those limits are not transcended by the prohibition of the Volstead act, wherein liquors containing as much as one-half of 1 per cent. of alcohol by volume and fit for use for beverage purposes are treated as within that power.

DODSON KILLING USE OF CALOMEL

Says Drug is Mercury and Acts Like Dynamite on Your Liver

Dodson is making a hard fight against calomel in the South. Every druggist has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason, Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it, while Dodson's Liver Tone is perfectly safe and gives better results," said a prominent local druggist. Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist. A large bottle costs but a few cents, and if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, you have only to ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all the next day like violent calomel. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work! Take Dodson's Liver Tone instead and feel fine, full of vigor an dambition.

Under present conditions our receipts of domestic coal are limited and prices are constantly changing.

We will be glad to enter orders; deliver the coal as promptly as we can secure it, and bill it to our customers on the basis of cost to us plus our usual gross margin, and this will have to be our policy at this time as everything indicates great uncertainty in the coal trade.

Our customers can be assured that we will do everything possible to keep the price as low as we are able to, consistent with quality, weight and service, and we shall be glad to have you entrust the business to us on this basis.

This also applies to any orders we already have from our trade.

SHOT HER HUSBAND

According to reports at Richmond police headquarters yesterday, John H. Stout, thirty-three years old, a blacksmith, employed at Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac shops, is suffering with bullet wounds in his legs, alleged to have been inflicted by his wife, Leona Stout, while he slept in bed Sunday about 2 o'clock in the morning.

DECLARED UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Washington, June 8—That section of the Virginia statute imposing a net income tax upon the profits of plants outside the state, but doing business in the state, was held unconstitutional by supreme court yesterday. The state taxed all the earnings of the F. S. Royster Guano Company, with main offices at Norfolk, and the company appealed on the grounds that most of its plants are outside the state.

END OF HALF-AND-HALF PLAN

Senate and House Conferees Reach Agreement on District of Columbia Appropriation

The half-and-half plan of financing the District is abolished and taxes are increased from 1 1-2 per cent to 2 per cent. This was the compromise agreement reached last night by Senate and House conferees on the District of Columbia appropriation bill.

The agreement was reached following a trip to the Senate side of the Capitol yesterday by Representative James W. Good, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee.

The conferees' agreement provides that the District Commissioners may levy a tax of any amount up to 2 per cent, in order to meet the new provision of 60 per cent by the District government and 40 per cent by the Federal.

Following an aggreement on the 50-50 plan and the tax rate the conferees quickly went through the measure and passed upon minor questions.

KIDNAPPERS TAKE INFANT

Thirteen Months Old Boy Spirited Away in Darkness

Shortly after 2 o'clock yesterday morning a man and a woman softly in the darkness placed a ladder against the side of the house of George H. Coughlin, president of the Brouker and Kessler Lithographing Company, of Philadelphia, in Curren Terrace, a suburb, and one or both ascended to the second floor, which they entered through a window.

Norristown, Penn., June 8.—

The window was that of the nursery. In a crib lay Blakely Coughlin, thirteen months' old son of Mr. and Mrs. Coughlin. The parents slept in the adjoining bedroom. Across a hall slept two other children, David, 8, and McLean, 5.

The night visitors were kidnappers of the baby. The child was lifted from his crib with the tube of the nursing bottle in his mouth. He did not awaken. He was carried across the room out of the window and down the ladder.

Mr. Coughlin is a graduate of Princeton, and was manager of the Varsity football team in 1903. He declared today that he knew of no enemies who would kidnap his child.

The Norristown county commissioners today offered a reward of $1,500 for the capture of the kidnappers and the recovery of the infant.

MRS. ODELL GETS 20 YEARS

Convicted of Aiding Husband to Kill Former Admirer

Rochester, N. Y., June 8.—A supreme court jury last night returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the second deggree against Pearl Beaver Odell, charged with assisting her husband, James L. Odell, who is waiting execution at Sing Sing, in the murder of Edward J. Kneip on the night of January 6, last.

Immediately after announcement of the verdict, Justice Robert H. Thompson sentenced her to 20 years' imprisonment at hard labor in Auburn prison.

Kneip was taken by the Odells to the Mosquito Point road, where he was handcuffed to a tree and beaten by both Mrs. Odell and her husband, Mrs. Odell using a large file. It was claimed by Mrs. Odell that Kneip betrayed her, then broke his promise to marry her and after her marriage to Odell threatened to expose her relations with him to her husband unless she accepted his attentions. Odell brought Kneip to their home, she testified, forced her to swear on the Bible that he was the man who had wronged her, and then asked her if she wanted to get even with him. Mrs. Odell testified that she "left it to Jimmy" as to what should be done.

The husband was convicted of murder in the first degree last month, and was sentenced to die in the week of June 13. Appeal to the court of appeals has stayed his execution.

FARNUM SCORES HIT AS ROMANTIC LOVER

William Fox presented William Farnum in E. Loyd Sheldon's drama, "The Adventurer," at the Richmond Theatre last night, and after seeing the virile and accomplished actor as Don Caesar de Bazan we do not hesitate to say that as a romantic lover William Farnum is without an equal on the screen. If ever an actor enjoyed a role, Farnum enjoyed that of the hero of the story of Spain in the days when knights were bold.

A well-balanced cast, headed by the attractive Estelle Taylor, supports Mr. Farnum. Taken as a whole, "The Adventurer" strikes a new note in screen productions, and it rings clear and true.

INGOMAR—Bessie Barricale

Bessie Barricale scores the greatest dramatic triumph of her career in "The Notorious Mrs. Sands," the thrilling photoplay showing at the Ingomar Theatre tonight. The picture, a Robertson-Cole Superior release, tells the story of the injustice suffered by a lovely girl reared among the "four hundred." "Fatty" Arbuckle will be shown as an extra attraction in "The Bell Boy."

POLISH-U. S. SEA TRADE GROWS

Danzig—Arrangements between American and Polish shipping interests for the establishment of a passenger and freight service between New York and Danzig which will keep more than a score of vessels plying between the two cities throughout the summer has been announced. Troop transport, mercantile freight and American Red Cross supply problems which have been embarrassing the Polish Government for the past year will be quickly disposed of by this arrangment.

SUGAR AT 22 1-2 CENTS

Announcement By American Causes Price Saving of Cent Pound

New Orleans June 8.—The American Sugar Refinery threw a bomb into the ranks of local speculators and importers of foreign white granulated sugars when it announced that it would contract to sell granulated sugsugars from now until December at 22 1-2 cents a pound.

This announcement did not reach New Orleans until late Saturday but since that time holders of high priced foreign table sugars have been trying to dispose of their stock. Buyers however are holding off and prices are reported as being shaved over a cent a pound.

Dealers in sugar are not slow to criticize the offer of the American because they say it will not contract for more than a few barrels for any one month at the prices quoted. They contend that the offer is made for the purpose of depressing the market temporarily in order to force the speculators and buyers of high priced sugars who have been taking much of its trade to unload. They point to the fact that even the largest handlers of granulated cannot get more than a few hundred pounds a day from the American as evidence of the motive behind the offer.

TWO SHOT TO DEATH

Bodies of Prominent Physician and Wife of Mill Employee Found in Woman's Home.

Bond, Miss., June 8.—Dr. B. S. Hood, aged 42, prominent physician, and Mrs. H. C. Spring, aged 45, wife of an employee of a local lumber company, were shot and killed Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Spring.

The verdict of the coroner's jury which held an inquest over the bodies of Dr. Hood and Mrs. Spring, was that Dr. Hood and Mrs. Spring were "killed by pistol shots, the pistol being held by an unknown person." In the testimony brought before the jury, it was sworn that the pistol found in Dr. Hood's hand, was the property of Mrs. Spring.

Mrs. Hood, widow of the physician, said that her husband had been trying for sime time to collect money for medical services, and that Mrs. Spring had offered to transfer some property to the physician in payment of the debt. He called at her home Thursday to discuss the subject, she said.

FIRES BULLET INTO HEART

Nashville, Tenn. June 8.—Enraged because she had been scolded by her mother, Julia Webster, 11 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Webster, fired a bullet through her heart early Friday night and died instantly. During the evening meal she had quarreled with her brother over riding in the family automobile.

TWO DEAD UNDER CAR

SHARKS GET 800 STEERS

Cattle Plunge Into Sea in Stampede On Vessel at Havana.

Havana June 8.—Hundreds of fine steers stampeded on board the American steamer St. Charles outside of Havana harbor Saturday afternoon, and after creating a panic on board the ship, plunged into the sea, where they became the prey of the sharks which infest the waters off Morro Castle. Except for a few that swam ashore and now are wandering about in the suburbs of this city, all the 800 steers on the St. Charles are believed to have perished.

Sanitary officers who inspected the vessel on her arrival Saturday were alarmed when they found 130 dead steers in the hold of the ship. To avoid possible danger to the people of the city, they ordered the captain of the St. Charles to put out to sea and there throw overboard the carcasses of the cattle that had died. While the crew was engaged in this onerous task the steers on board became stampeded, broke down their corrals and ran amuck. Frightened animals ran up and down the decks and plunged overboard, where the tigers of the deep were awaiting them. Four were seen to strike the water almost simultaneously and in an instant they were dragged beneath the surface, only a trail of blood telling of their fate.

CONGRESSIONAL CONTEST IN STATE

"Independent" Candidates, at Present Not in Evidence

MOORE HAS WALKOVER

Checks Will be Returned to All Candidates Who Have No Competitors in The Field.

Politically, the congressional contest for the state this year appears to have about reached its end, unless there shall be "independent candidates in the several districts. The skies for further political honors for Congressman Andrew Jackson Montague, of this district threatened at one time to become cloudy, cleared yesterday when D C. O'Flaherty announced that he did not have the time to organize the districts for the fight at this time.

Down to 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon none of the "dark horses" in any of the districts has offered their cash to the auditor as evidence of their intention to enter the primary.

Reports from the Fourth district say that Dr. Henry Clay Smith, of Nottoway, is making a hard campaign against Senator Drewry and that the people of that part of the district are committing themselves to him, Senator Drewry has been attending to his duties in Washington, but when that body shall have completed its session he will take to the hustings and he will let the people hear from him. Dr. Smith is paying a good deal of attention to Lunenburg and other counties in that neck of the woods.

Unless the opposition develops to Congressman Bland, Montague, James Woods, Moore and Flood in the closing hours of the day they will have their checks returned to them, the law providing that this shall be done when candidates have no opposition and they are awarded the nomination by action of the district committees. In the Second district there are two candidates—Senator J. T. Deal, of Norfolk, and W. J. Kendricks, of Suffolk. The Fourth district has two—Congressman P. H. Drewery, of Petersburg, and Dr. H. C. Smith, of Nottoway. The Seventh district has two aspirants—Congressman Thomas W. Harrison, of Winchester, and Colonel Robert F. Leedy, of Page.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Kenneth L. Gilpin, of Clarke Co., candidate for Lieutenant Governor, will conduct his campaign in an automobile, in which he will visit every section of the state.

Newport News, Va., which ranked as the forty-fourth city of the South and the two hundred seventy-ninth of the country in 1910, with 20,205 people, now has a population of 35,396. The increase in the last decade was 15,391, or 76.2 per cent.

Sidney Oakey, mechanic, was killed; Charles Miller, hostler, was so seriously scalded that he is not expected to live, when the boiler of a giant locomotive exploded in the Norfolk and Western Railway yards at Roanoke yesterday morning. No official statement as to the cause of the accident has been given out.

The Rev. Charles H. Boggs, aged 91, known as Brother Boggs, one of the oldest members of the Virginia conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, circuit rider and station preacher, oldest Mason in Virginia, veteran of the civil war and one of the best known men in Virginia, died in Richmond yesterday morning after an illness of 3 weeks. For forty years he was an active minister in the Methodist Church.

A dispatch from Woodstock says young folk of Edinburg—and others not so young—are talking about the appearance and disappearance (by evaporation seemingly) of the "Woman in Black," in that neighborhood The story goes that Monday night shortly after the witching hour as a certain man and his wife were about to enter the gate of the home place, after attending the masquerade party in the town hall, a gigantic form, clad in black, suddenly loomed up in front of them and when spoken to made no reply, nor moved. The man then struck at the "gloomy" shape which dissolved into nothingness. These good folk aver that that the apparition had feet at least eighteen inches long, so they must have been it clearly—and furthermore the moon was shining brightly at the time of their encounter with this female (?) nocturnal promenader.

According to the experts a fair grade of corn whisky—new but with a kick and not so bad—has dropped in price in Newport News from $12 to $8 recently, while other grades have dropped in proportion. Little is now heard of whisky at twenty dollars a quart, the "don't buy" idea apparently having struck the thirsty as well as the purchasers of other merchandise. There is not a great deal of moonshine or bootleg whisky being made in Newport News, which is finding its way into the local market, the greater part distilled in the city being used for home consumption. However, there are huge quantities being imported from some where, which may account for the lower prices.

No new trial will be granted Prohibition Inspector J. J. Oliver, who was given 30 days in jail and a fine of $250 by a jury in hustings court recently. Judge D. C. Richardson in Richmond Friday overruled the motion of his attorney, Louis O. Wendenburg, for a new trial on the ground of after discoverd evidence.

"BREAK SOLID SOUTH"

Chicago, June 7.—Virginia, the mother of Democratic Presidents, has two candidates for the Republican vice presidential nomination here, and begging consideration at the hands of the G. O. P. convention.

They are Colonel Henry W. Anderson, of Richmond, and Samuel Adams, who, though describing himself in his posters as a native of Virginia, traces his forbears back to John Adams, John Quincy Adams and all the other Adamses who have helped to make American history.

As an aid to his propaganda, Samuel Adams is employing a man to walk about the lobbies of the hotels with a tray of apples. Each one he meets is smilingly requested to have an Adams apple.

Colonel Anderson arrived Saturday. He, too, offers himself a man who can "break the solid South."

"The great masses of young men of the South," he said, "are ready, if encouraged and properly led, to make the South Republican.

He declared that a change of from 12 to 15 per cent in the vote of the four Southern States of Virginia, Kentucky, North Carolina and Tennessee would throw these States in the Republican column.

SHOOTS HER HUSBAND

Cumberland, Md., June 5.—Mrs. Carrie Beckett, a bride of a few months, accidentally shot her husband, Frank Beckett, who was returning home with his pay envelope.

Playing bandit, she commanded him to throw up his hands and presented a revolver, not knowing it was loaded. The weapon was discharged and Beckett fell to the floor with a bullet in his right chest.

Although she had never operated an automobile before, Mrs. Beckett drove a machine she discovered near the house four miles to Frantz Hospital, after she had carefully placed the limp form of her husband in the tonneau.

SIZE OF U. S. ARMY

Joint Conferees Decide on 280,000 Men and 17,800 Officers

A peace time army of 280,000 enlisted men and 17,800 officers was agreed to by House and Senate conferees on the army reorganization bill yesterday.

Provisions for automatic operation of the selective draft in time of war were struck out of the bill, as was the voluntary military training clause.

This removes features objected to by Samuel Gompers and other labor leaders.

Militia are left under State control. Both houses are expected to accept the conference measure.

DYNAMITE

The man who sits on a box of dynamite smoking a pipe is invariably the man who has handled dynamite safely for so many years that he is callous to the danger.

Many a man has suffered for years from a chronic weakness of the Stomach, Liver or Kidneys and he doesn't think they are dangerous because he has put up with them so long.
